

Our Much-Revered Elder, Metropolitan Cyprian, on his bed of sickness since November 29, 2007 (Old Style)

“O Mother, do thou ever protect our Archpastor under the shelter of thy wings...”

The twenty-ninth anniversary of the Consecration of His Eminence, Metropolitan Cyprian (February 7, 1979 †St. Parthenios of Lampsakos) finds His Eminence, Metropolitan Cyprian on his bed of sickness. In spite of this, he continues to care for his rational flock, since his blessing and the Grace imparted through him strengthen, guide, and protect, in a mysterious and astonishing manner, his innumerable spiritual children—both clergymen and laypeople, in Greece and abroad—, while the ecclesiastical work and witness of the Holy Synod in Resistance is constantly advanced, to the glory of God!
