

New C.T.O.S. Board Member

ON FEBRUARY 8, 2008 (New Style), Dr. John N. Caminis, Vice President of Medical Affairs and Clinical Development at Eurand Pharmaceuticals in Yardley, PA, was appointed to the Board of Advisors of the Center for Traditionalist Orthodox Studies.

*Dr. Caminis lecturing
at the C.T.O.S.*

Dr. Caminis received his B.S. degree in biological sciences from Concordia University in Montréal, Québec, Canada, and his M.D. degree from the University of Athens School of Medicine in 1990. From 1992-1994, he was a Clinical Research Fellow at the renowned McGill University Bone Center in Montréal.

In addition to his professional and research credentials, professional publications, and an international reputation in pharmaceutical management, Dr. Caminis holds a Master's Certificate in Project Management from the George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He is a spiritual son of Metropolitan Cyprian and Archbishop Chrysostomos, and we are honored to welcome him into the ranks of the other distinguished advisors to the C.T.O.S.

