

THE INSTITUTE FOR BYZANTINE AND MODERN GREEK STUDIES

announces the publication of Volume Five in the series

NEW LIBRARY

This new volume is dedicated to the scholarship and publications of Dr. Constantine Cavarnos, President of the Institute, and is entitled

A Tribute to the Erudition of Constantine Cavarnos

Reviews of Forty-Two of His Books on Patristics, Philosophy, Hellenism, Spiritual Life, Modern Orthodox Saints, Ecumenism, and the Ecclesiastical Arts

The author of the volume, Archbishop Chrysostomos of Etna, introduces the book with these explanatory words, which provide the reader with a clear understanding of its scope:

It was with great pleasure that I accepted the invitation of Professor Constantine Cavarnos and his learned associate, the Reverend Father Dr. Asterios Gerostergios, on behalf of the Institute for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies, to author the fifth volume in the popular series New Library. This acclaimed series of critical reviews and evaluations of books in the fields of ancient, Byzantine, and modern Greek studies, Russian thought, and Eastern Orthodox spirituality, initiated by Dr. Cavarnos, was inspired by the famous Bibliotheke (Library) or Myriobiblion of the ninth-century Orthodox luminary, St. Photios the Great, to whom many attribute the “invention” of the book review. The extensive analyses and reviews of the several hundred books found in the Saint’s Library constitute an encyclopedic feat widely praised by the literati of his day. New Library has earned similar accolades from contemporary research experts in the fields which it covers.
