

Feast Day of the Parish of Sts. Cyprian and Justina in Etna, CA

On Saturday, October 2, 2011 (Old Style), the small Exarchate parish of Sts. Cyprian and Justina in Etna, CA, celebrated its Feast Day Liturgy with a concelebration of clergy from the St. Gregory Palamas Monastery—Archimandrite Akakios, Abbot of the Monastery, Hieromonks Gregory and Patapios, and Hierodeacons Nectarios and Photii—along with Father George Mavromatis, serving Priest at the nearby Convent of St. Elizabeth the Grand Duchess of Russia, and the two Priests who serve the parish, Protopresbyter David Cownie and Father Jerome Zubricky. Instead of the parish singers, the chanters from the Monastery also sang the service in both Greek and English. (See, above, the Small Entrance and below, following the Divine Liturgy, the serving clergy.)

The Divine Liturgy was followed by a parish meal, where greetings from Archbishop Chrysostomos and Bishop Auxentios, among others, were read to the gathered faithful.
