

Forthcoming from the
INSTITUTE FOR BYZANTINE AND MODERN GREEK STUDIES

CHRISTIAN MORALITY

By St. Nicodemos the Hagiorite

Translated by Hieromonk Patapios with Monk Chrysostomos and Archbishop Chrysostomos of Etna

With a Scholarly Introduction and Commentary
by Archbishop Chrysostomos

Paperbound, 670 pp. • $35.00 + shipping and handling

St. Nicodemos the Hagiorite (1749-1809) is best known, together with St. Macarios of Corinth, for two of the greatest collections of spiritual and mystical writings in the Orthodox Church, The Philokalia and The Evergetinos, as well as his compilation of Church Canons, The Rudder. However, many scholars and religious writers consider his Χρηστοθήθεια, a treatise on Christian morality, his finest work, both from the standpoint of its refined style and with regard to its meticulous discussion of Christian ethics and morals, which he draws from Scripture, the Church's canonical and Patristic witness, the spiritual precepts underlying its hagiography, hymnography, and iconography, and the highest philosophical traditions of the ancients. The annotated translation of the book and a useful index, coming from translators who also worked on the first complete English translation of the four volumes of the Greek text of The Evergetinos, are complemented by a beautiful cover and handsome, two-color printing on fine, acid-free paper.

— AVAILABLE APRIL 10, 2012 —

- Pre-order from the publisher online (Paypal or credit card) at <http://ibmgs.org/patristic.html>
- Pre-order by mail from: Institute for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies 115 Gilbert Road, Belmont, MA 02478-2200, U.S.A.
- Pre-order by FAX at (617) 876-3600