

Rest of Mother Fevronia in Sofia, Bulgaria

On Wednesday, June 28, 2012 (Old Style), Mother Fevronia, one of the senior nuns at the huge Convent of the Protection of the Mother of God in the Knyazhevo district of Sofia, Bulgaria, reposed at the age of 79.

The Protection Convent, a monastic pillar of the Old Calendar Orthodox Church of Bulgaria, was founded by the late and Blessed Eldress Serafima (Princess Olga Liven in the world), to whom Mother Fevronia was a loyal spiritual disciple for many decades.

The newly reposed Mother Fevronia, with her sister according to the flesh, donated the property near downtown Sofia where the magnificent Cathedral of the Dormition, the spiritual center of our Sister Church, is located.

Mother Fevronia was held in the highest regard by our Bishops here in America especially, and she showed them great and gracious kindness during their visits to our brothers and sisters in Sofia and the other communities under His Eminence, Bishop Photii, First Hierarch of the Old Calendar Orthodox Church of Bulgaria. Вечная память! Memory eternal!
