

† Holy Resurrection of Jesus Christ our Savior, 2016

Christ is Risen!

Indeed, He is Risen!

“Come, let us drink a new drink, not one marvelously brought forth from a barren rock, but the Source of incorruption, springing forth from the tomb of Christ, in Whom we are established.”

Come, all ye who love Christ.

Come forth, O Orthodox Christians.

Let all of us who thirst come and let us drink a new and unprecedented drink:

Water, which renews us and renders us incorrupt.

Not like that water marvelously brought forth from a barren rock, which the Israelites drank in the desert.

Rather, let us drink from the abundant Source of incorruption, the Life-giving Tomb of Christ.

In Christ we are established and steadfast.

He is our Rock and our unshakable Foundation.

He is the Source of Life and the Living Water.
