

Towards the Waveless Haven of the Great and Radiant Resurrection

Amidst the springtime gladness of the renewal of all things,
the sacred Forty Days of the Great Fast
prepare us for a foretaste of the “everlasting life,”
the Glory of the Last Times
at the Marriage of the Lamb that was slain and resurrected.
Our journey and flight require
not only one wing: Fasting,
but also a second wing: Love.

Abba Anthony said:

“From our neighbor come life and death.
If we win our brother, we win God; and if we cause our brother to stumble, we sin against Christ.”

May our sea journey be fruitful,
under the radiant Protection of the Theotokos!
“Fair winds and following seas!”
