

Let our Hearts be Enlarged
† Great Lent 2019

Glory and Thanksgiving to our Lord!

The horizons of Eternity open again before us,
beyond the turbulent sea of life.

The blessed Fast rediscovers its meaning. It bestows Peace, for it opens up room in our Hearts for Twofold Love.

Our flight over the breaking waves becomes light inasmuch as we make room in our Hearts for Christ and our Brother.

To forgive:* everyone should have a place in our Hearts;
we must all be together.

“And so shall we ever be with the Lord”: forgiven, crucified, and risen with Him, in His Divine mercy, now and ever...

Good Flight! Good Pascha!

Under the Radiant Protection of the Theotokos!

† Cheesefare Sunday, February 25, 2019 (Old Style), St. Tarasios

The Least Minister of Christ's Sheep, Girt with the Towel of Servitude

† Metropolitan Cyprian of Oropos and Phyle

* The etymological sense of the word forgiveness in Greek (συγχωρῶ: συν+χωρῶ) is to “make room,” “come together in the same place.”